

	ANT 2000 Introduction to Anthropology	ANT 2511+L Biological Anthropology (+Lab)	ANT 3101 Principles of Archaeology	ANT 3212 Peoples and Cultures of the World	ANT 4944 Anthropology Internship or other approved field work course	ANT 3312 North American Indians or other approved area course
Content
SLO 1: Describe and apply concepts and theories in the subfields of Anthropology: Archaeology, Cultural anthropology, Biological anthropology.	x	x	x	x		x
SLO 2: Use anthropological terminology accurately.	x	x	x	x		x
SLO 3: Describe career options that follow training in anthropology.	x		x		x
Critical Thinking
SLO 4: Define problems from an anthropological perspective.	x		x			x
SLO 5: Identify relevant goals and objectives.		x	x		x

SLO 6: Select appropriate method.		x	x		x
SLO 7: Employ appropriate analytical tools.		x	x
SLO 8: Draw Reasonable conclusions		x	x
Communication
SLO 9: Communicate professionally about anthropology in writing and public speaking.			x			x
SLO 10: Conduct Research using information technology.			x			x
Integrity / Values

SLO 11: Identify and practice standard ethical standards consistent with relevant professional organizations (America Anthropological Association, Society for American Archaeology, American Physical Anthropology Association).	x	x	x
SLO 12: Recognize ethical components in complex situations.	x		x
SLO 13: Analyze complex ethical situations and design appropriate solutions			x
SLO 14: Articulate responsibilities of anthropologist to society	x		x
Project Management

SLO 15: design and execute projects reasonably with given time constraints.		x	x		x
SLO 16: develop back-up planning skills.					x
SLO 17: Collaborate effectively with team members.		x				x